

Topographic Survey

A survey of upstanding earthworks such as ridge and furrow is sometimes requested ahead of the destruction or alteration of the monument. This includes a photographic and measured survey determined by the Tyne and Wear Archaeology Service.