	Avoid benefit sanctions for jobseekers and others For benefits like Jobseeker's Allowance (JSA), Employment and Support Allowance (ESA) or Universal Credit, you may have to do work-related activities. If you don't, they may be stopped or cut (sanctioned) for a period. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you are sanctioned ask the Jobcentre to reconsider their decision and appeal after that, and ask the jobcentre for a hardship payment • Ask to review your 'claimant commitment' - your level of work-related activity For help, phone Jobcentre Plus 0800 169 0310 and see the sanctions leaflet on www.newcastle.gov.uk/benefitinformation

There are two groups: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The work-related group where you take part in work related activity, such as work focused interviews, or • The support group (or equivalent in UC) which is extra money and no work-related activity, if you have certain disabilities or if being found fit for work would lead to a serious risk to your health. Other rules apply. For more help, phone Jobcentre Plus on 0800 169 0310

UC	Universal Credit (UC) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • People usually have to claim UC instead of the benefits it's replacing such Tax Credits, Housing Benefit, ESA or JSA (called 'legacy benefits') • Some people on 'legacy benefits' may have to claim UC for certain changes in circumstances. But they may not have to. At some stage the rest will be told to claim UC – see www.newcastle.gov.uk/the-move-to-Universal-Credit • Jobcentre Plus, Citizens Advice, libraries and others can help with the claim More details: phone Jobcentre Plus on 0800 328 5644 or see www.gov.uk/universal-credit and www.newcastle.gov.uk/universalcredit
