

LibrariesWeek

3-9 OCTOBER 2022

#LibrariesWeek

Never Stop
Learning

Bolinda

Borrow
Box.

Nielsen
BookData

Explore Newcastle Libraries' week-long showcase of events and activities that inspire learning for all

Gannin along the Wall film screening | Mon 3 Oct, 1pm | West End Library

Join us to watch a film about the real route of the Roman Wall, made by St James' Heritage Group. To book, email stjamesbenwell@gmail.com

Writing for Wellbeing | Tues 4 Oct, 10am-12pm | City Library

Local writer Helen Aitchison offers a gentle introduction to the physical and emotional mental health benefits of writing. Book at eventbrite.com

Crossings Community Choir | Tues 4 Oct, 5-7pm | City Library

This welcoming choir invites local people, asylum seekers, refugees and migrants to create, learn, and make meaningful connections.

Memories Are Made of This | Wed 5 Oct, 11.30am-2.30pm | City Library, Bewick Hall

Come along to watch vintage TV adverts and enjoy activities for reminiscence and conversation. Drop in.

Cancer Awareness Talk | Thurs 6 Oct, 10.30-11.15am | Fenham Library

Meet Healthworks and learn what signs and symptoms to look out for, find advice on how to cut down risk, and address any concerns.

English Learners Reading Group | Thurs 6 Oct, 1-2pm | City Library, L3

Come along to this friendly, drop in reading group to improve your English language skills by reading aloud. No booking required

How to Use Times Digital Archive and British Library Newspapers | Fri 7 Oct, 2pm | City Library

Sit down with Gale, digital archives publisher, to learn all about the archives, how to use the online platform, and how to search historic newspapers for family histories, independent academic research, or satisfy your historic curiosity! Book at eventbrite.com

Code Club | Fri 7 Oct, 3.45-4.45pm | West End Library | Book at Eventbrite.com

Do you have a favourite computer game? Would you like to learn how to make your own? At Code Club you can learn how to make cool games, animations & websites too! For 9 – 13 year olds.

Day of Play | Sat 8 Oct, 11-3pm | City Library | Drop in

Playing isn't just fun, it's also a brilliant way to learn. And you are never too old to play! Join us for a family creative session to explore learning through play. For children of all ages and their families.

Get in touch

Email us at

information@newcastle.gov.uk

Call us on 0191 2787878 and ask for 'Libraries'

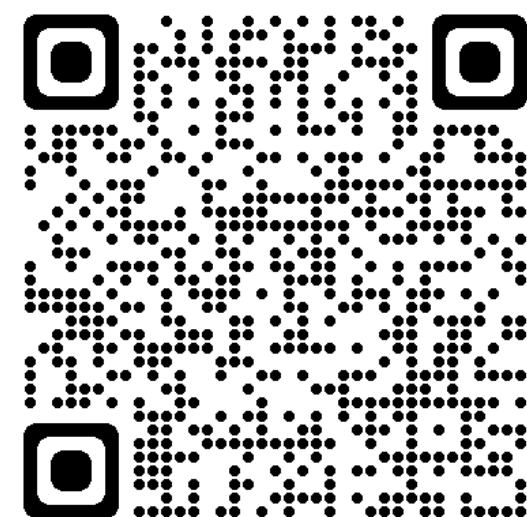

NewcastleLibraries

@ToonLibraries

@ToonLibraries

LibrariesWeek

3-9 OCTOBER 2022

#LibrariesWeek

Never Stop
Learning

Bolinda

Borrow
Box

Nielsen
BookData

Explore Newcastle Libraries' week-long showcase of events and activities that inspire learning for all

Gannin along the Wall film screening | Mon 3 Oct, 1pm | West End Library

Join us to watch a film about the real route of the Roman Wall, made by St James' Heritage Group. To book, email stjamesbenwell@gmail.com

Writing for Wellbeing | Tues 4 Oct, 10am-12pm | City Library

Local writer Helen Aitchison offers a gentle introduction to the physical and emotional mental health benefits of writing. Book at eventbrite.com

Crossings Community Choir | Tues 4 Oct, 5-7pm | City Library

This welcoming choir invites local people, asylum seekers, refugees and migrants to create, learn, and make meaningful connections.

Memories Are Made of This | Wed 5 Oct, 11.30am-2.30pm | City Library, Bewick Hall

Come along to watch vintage TV adverts and enjoy activities for reminiscence and conversation. Drop in.

Cancer Awareness Talk | Thurs 6 Oct, 10.30-11.15am | Fenham Library

Meet Healthworks and learn what signs and symptoms to look out for, find advice on how to cut down risk, and address any concerns.

English Learners Reading Group | Thurs 6 Oct, 1-2pm | City Library, L3

Come along to this friendly, drop in reading group to improve your English language skills by reading aloud. No booking required

How to Use Times Digital Archive and British Library Newspapers | Fri 7 Oct, 2pm | City Library

Sit down with Gale, digital archives publisher, to learn all about the archives, how to use the online platform, and how to search historic newspapers for family histories, independent academic research, or satisfy your historic curiosity! Book at eventbrite.com

Code Club | Fri 7 Oct, 3.45-4.45pm | West End Library | Book at Eventbrite.com

Do you have a favourite computer game? Would you like to learn how to make your own? At Code Club you can learn how to make cool games, animations & websites too! For 9 – 13 year olds.

Day of Play | Sat 8 Oct, 11-3pm | City Library | Drop in

Playing isn't just fun, it's also a brilliant way to learn. And you are never too old to play! Join us for a family creative session to explore learning through play. For children of all ages and their families.

Get in touch

Email us at

information@newcastle.gov.uk

Call us on 0191 2787878 and ask for 'Libraries'

NewcastleLibraries

@ToonLibraries

@ToonLibraries

